Accelerated Courses for Enrolled Students (ACES) Program

If you would like to prepare for your graduate school experience, you can enroll in FSU’s Center for Intensive English Studies (CIES) for a seven-week summer program that focuses on the language and culture appropriate to American universities. Once enrolled, you will be able to consult CIES staff for personal advice on where to live and how to get around in Tallahassee.

◆ Dates: June 18th-August 3rd

◆ This program is for:
Preventing fully-admitted international graduate students to successfully begin their graduate-level coursework in the fall semester

◆ The program will include:
  • English preparation for academic purposes
  • Language and culture appropriate to American universities
  • Personal consultant for advice
  • Cultural excursions and local trips
  • SPEAK Exam for international teaching assistants

◆ Topics include:
  • Academic Writing
  • Presentation Skills
  • American Classroom Culture
  • Grammar
  • Reading

◆ Price: $2100

◆ Contact Information:
  • To learn more about how to apply, contact CIES at cies@fsu.edu, or call (850)644-4797.
  • To learn more details about the courses taught, contact Olivia James at ojames@fsu.edu.
  • To apply now, go to the following link: https://my.cies.fsu.edu/index.cfm?fuseaction=apply.cies
Note: You will need to use the FSUID and password that you used to apply for FSU.